Notice from Irish Credit Bureau D.A.C. (“ICB”)

As a result of the introduction of the General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”), from 20 May 2018, ICB will be using Legitimate Interests (GDPR Article 6(f)) as the legal basis for processing your personal and credit information. These Legitimate Interests are promoting greater financial stability by supporting a full and accurate assessment of credit applications, aiding in the avoidance of over-indebtedness, assisting in lowering the cost of credit, complying with and supporting compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, enabling more consistent, faster decision-making in the provision of credit and assisting in fraud prevention. Please review the ICB’s Fair Processing Notice which is available at <http://www.icb.ie/PDF/Fair%20Processing%20Notice.pdf> . It documents, who they are, what they do, details of their Data Protection Officer, how they get the data, why they take it, what personal data they hold, what they do with it, how long they retain it, who they share it with, what entitles them to process the data (legitimate interest), what happens if your data is inaccurate and your rights i.e. right to information, right of access, right to complain, right to object, right to restrict, right to request erasure and right to request correction of your personal information.
